

THE HEART OF SUCCESS

LOVING WORK & LIVING LIFE

Finding solutions to the work-life challenge has never been more relevant and urgent with the increasing pace of our personal and professional lives. Take a practical look at work-life harmony through The Heart of Success and ask these critical questions:

- How can I develop and sustain passion for my work?
- How do I make a difference in my organisation?
- How can I manage my personal life and career successfully?

Come and be inspired to love work and live life to the fullest in every sense!

Who Should Attend

- Individuals & Working Professionals wanting to prioritise between their career and personal lives.
- Teams seeking to play to their strengths, both individually and collectively.
- Organisations wanting to establish a set of core values to guide their future development and enhance their bottom-line.

The Business Case

Have you considered how your employees' well-being impacts organisational performance? The Heart of Success can help an organisation create a dynamic work culture that fosters teamwork and effectively motivates employees to be their best.

Through this interactive full-day session, participants will be challenged to:

- Recognise their abilities and play to their strengths individually and as a team.
- Be inspired to believe in their dreams and turn them into reality in their workplace.
- Examine ways to keep the common touch in relationships.
- Achieve True Success by effectively prioritising between work and personal life.

Comments & Clients

“The staff all felt that it helped us appreciate the benefits of a healthy balance between work commitments and family life. The workshops were conducted in a relaxed and entertaining way. We will use the principles to develop and implement sustainable improvements for the benefit of the employees and company. A job well done by Focus on the Family!”

- Paul O’Neil, GM, IECO Pte Ltd

“It’s always a good reminder as this aspect of running the business is not always emphasised. I am glad that the founder, managing director and HR manager are with me at this talk so that we can be on the same page as far as this is concerned.”

James Chia, President, Pico Art Intl Pte Ltd

“The atmosphere at work is significantly different and there is an excitement about what we are doing these days.”

Jason, Sales Team Manager
